COCCHI'S VERMOUTH PANETTONE

Rarely sold outside of Piedmont before, our Vermouth Panettone is now available for worldwide shipments!

Cocchi has been collaborating with local bakeries for many years, producing small batches of Panettone: a traditional, quintessentially Italian gift. The Cocchi Panettone has been exclusively sold in our flagship store in Cocconato, Piemonte, since 2012, and only gifted to very good friends worldwide.

The Cocchi Panettone features candied lemon and orange peels infused with our vermouth, dried fruit and dark chocolate drops. The recipe has been carefully developed to perfectly pair with the sensorial profile of Cocchi Storico Vermouth di Torino and its flavours of cocoa, dried fruit and spices. Traditionally served with a glass of vermouth neat, chilled and with a lemon peel, the Cocchi Vermouth Panettone can also be the perfect accompaniment to a classic after dinner cocktail such as the Manhattan or Negroni. As a low-abv alternative, try it also with a glass of sweet sparkling wine, such as Asti Cocchi.

INGREDIENTS FOR THE PERFECT PANETTONE

Prepared according to a unique Cocchi recipe by the Piedmontese artisan baker Albertengo, our Cocchi Storico Vermouth di Torino is added directly into the dough, adding rich and complex flavors, natural sugar and turning the mixture to golden color. Vermouth-soaked candied citrus fruit, covered with almonds and hazelnuts frosting, are added on top.

The hazelnuts used are from the world-wide famous variety "Tonda Gentile del Piemonte IGP", considered to be the "white truffle" of hazelnuts.

The Cocchi Panettone has been created to be served alongside Cocchi Vermouth di Torino, the recipe incorporating classic, moreish vermouth into the traditional ingredients.

Produced with natural ingredients: butter, Italian eggs from pastured poultry, raisin and candied fruit, nuts and sourdough. Preservative free.

For full list of ingredients, check packaging or contact the Cocchi team.

Each Vermouth Panettone is individually wrapped in high quality matt paper and closed with a premium white ribbon.

Weight: 1kg.
